SOUTH AMERICAN WAR CLOUD AGAIN TAKING SHAPE IT APPEARS

Santiago, Nov. 28. (AP)—No communication has been received here from Peru since the protest of the Peruvian foreign minister against anti-Peruvian riots at Iquique, Chile, and the attack on the Peruvian consuls. It was said at the foreign office today. It was added that the announcement of the Chilean consul general in New York that the difficulty between Peru and Chile had been settled by an apology on the part of the Peruvian government was evidently due to a misunderstanding.

Peru Backs Up Her Man
Lima, Nov. 28. (AP)—The cabinet and senate has approved the action of the foreign minister in strongly protesting to Chile against the anti-Peruvian riots at Iquique. It is announced that Peru will demand indemnities for these incidents. The cabinet ministers at Lima could separately upon the foreign minister yesterday.

PERU TRYING HARD TO PREVENT WAR

Lima, Peru, Nov. 28. (AP)—The Peruvian government is apparently determined to prevent the occurrence of untoward incidents here in connection with the Peruvian-Chilean dispute. The situation continues calm.

CHILE ASKS ENGLAND TO RETURN WARSHIPS

Santiago, Chile, Nov. 28. (AP)—After a meeting of the ministers today with military and naval authorities it was semi-officially stated it had been agreed that Great Britain be asked to give up the two dreadnoughts under construction in England for Chile at the beginning of the war and taken over by the British government.

It appears that the Chilean government's policy concerning the Peruvian incidents has been decided upon. The dispute, it is held, was not one provoked by Chile, which is only maintaining firmly the national respect and dignity.

DO NOT EXPECT PEACE TREATY BEFORE APRIL

Paris, Nov. 28. (AP)—At a meeting preliminary to the sitting of the delegates to the peace conference, it is announced committees will be appointed to study different phases of the problems which will be involved and present reports to the conference, whose deliberations will by this means be of a more definite character. The conference it is believed, will last for three months and it is not expected that a treaty will be signed before April.

David Lloyd George, British premier, will arrive in Paris at the same time as President Wilson.

GERMANY CANNOT BOOGE INDEMNITY SAYS ENGLISH PAPER

London, Nov. 28. (AP)—"German states, whatever their form, must pay the bill. Germany as a whole, must be held responsible for the consequences of the war," says the Westminster Gazette in discussing the situation that has developed in Germany.

The newspaper admits that the allies may find that the legal entity of Germany has undergone a vast change and that like Austria it may burst in fragments before negotiations are completed.

THANKSGIVING DAY IN NORTHERN RUSSIA KEPT BY AMERICANS

Archangel, Russia, Nov. 28. (AP)—So far as was possible in this frozen wilderness the American troops in northern Russia tried to observe the old-fashioned American Thanksgiving today in box cars, sod houses, village billets and birch bark shelters and around camp fires near the Bolshevik line as much leisure as was permitted by the exigencies of the military situation was granted the troops. Some of them at far away points along almost impassable roads had only their iron rations but for most part special treats were sent along the way as far as possible.

Some of the men had wild turkey like the Pilgrim fathers brought down by their rifle bullets in the wilderness.

The Russian government here proclaimed Thanksgiving a Russian holiday also and it was generally observed in Archangel by prayers of thanksgiving for the end of the war in France.

NEW YORK BEAR HUNT EN LIVENS THINGS ON THANKSGIVING DAY

New York, Nov. 28. (AP)—An impromptu bear hunt in Central Park was the most killing event of Thanksgiving day in New York. In the excitement of the chase an assistant keeper of the Zoo, where the bear escaped, dropped dead of heart disease, a patrolman had a large chunk bitten out of his right calf and a soldier had a part of a thumb nipped off while pursuing brain up a tree.

There is every reason to believe that the bear would have escaped had it not inadvertently got in the path of an automobile.

It was swaggering across a road in the direction of the topmost tree in the park when the motor collided with it. The car was considerably damaged and the cub's spirit was broken. The bear was finally lassoed by a policeman who once was a cowboy.

AMERICANS GUESTS OF ENGLISH FORCES ON NATION'S HOLIDAY

London, Nov. 28. (AP)—The American Thanksgiving day was celebrated today in England as never before. The British people cooperated in the observance of the anniversary and entertained the Americans in many places. At all naval bases the admiralty directed that the American naval units be entertained while officers and crews of the five American battleships in the Firth of Forth were guests on board British warships there.

The crews of 150 American ships all the way from Gibraltar to the Shetland Islands were entertained by British seamen.

TRADE COMMISSION TO BE REPRESENTED AT PEACE MEETING

Washington, Nov. 28. (AP)—The federal trade commission probably will be represented among the advisers of the American delegates to the coming peace conference, it was learned today. Such a representative is desirable, officials say, in order that the conference may have the benefit of the information on foreign trade which the commission has gathered in the course of its work. Such advice will be especially useful, it was said, in discussions relating to foreign trade and freedom of the seas.

John Walsh, attorney for the commission, has been mentioned as the probable selection of the commission to handle this work.

WHAT GEORGE GOT IS NOTHING COMPARED TO WHAT AWAITS WILSON

Paris, Nov. 28. (AP)—An appeal for continued close relations among the nations allied in the war was made by Andre Tardieu, French high commissioner to the United States, in an address today at the annual Thanksgiving luncheon of the American club in Paris.

Ambassador Sharp paid high tribute to France and recalled the historical friendship between France and the United States.

"We have been with her in the past," he said, "and we shall be with her in the future."

"We are victorious; Belgium is retrieved; Alsace-Lorraine is liberated, thanks to you, my friends of America, who brought us at the most decisive time in the war both material and moral aid and comfort," said M. Tardieu in beginning his address.

"In a few days," he continued, "President Wilson will be our honored guest. We saw today the King of noble Great Britain but we will give later to your President a greeting of a kind worthy of him and worthy of America."

ARMY OF OCCUPATION SPENDS THANKSGIVING WITH LUXEMBURG

With the American Army of Occupation, Monday, Nov. 25. (AP)—By courier to Nancy, November 27.—The indications are that the American army of occupation will spend Thanksgiving in their present positions on this side of the German frontier.

The Americans already have started a search for the luxuries of Luxembourg for Thursday's dinner. In the absence of turkeys they are casting their eyes at Luxembourg's chickens, geese, ducks and pigeons.

The German officers also were fond of chickens and geese and consequently the farmers and villagers have but a few on hand. There is plenty of American frozen beef at the ports but the Americans feel they should have some kind of poultry on the day that everybody at home is eating turkey.

AMERICANS ABOARD CUNARD LINER BOUND FOR THEIR HOME PORT

Washington, Nov. 28. (AP)—Gen. March, chief of staff, announced today that the Cunard liner Mauretania which sailed from Liverpool for New York last Monday at 4 o'clock p. m., has aboard 165 officers and 3834 men of the American army, including 116 sick and wounded. The liner is due in New York early next week.

Counting those on the Mauretania 19,995 officers and men, most of them attached to air service units which have been training in England, are now enroute home.

This represents about half the total number of American troops in England when the armistice was signed. The remainder will embark in the next ten days and all the men from England should be home before the middle of December.

WILLIAM IN HOLLAND KNOWS WHAT'S DOING IN HIS FORMER EMPIRE

London, Nov. 28. (AP)—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Amerongen, Holland, says the stories regarding the former German emperor's princely surroundings and mode of life are not altogether true.

A most striking feature of the daily life of William Hohenzollern, the correspondent continues, is the mass of correspondence to which he devotes most of his mornings and apparently unrestricted by the Dutch government is kept accurately informed of every development in Germany and elsewhere and he is reported to be able to keep in close touch with the other side of the frontier.

The correspondent says he learns on good authority that the Netherlands government considers the former Crown Prince the only dangerous intriguer, the former emperor's day being regarded as ended.

HUNS LIKED FRESH CHICKENS AND EGGS

With the British Armies in France Nov. 28. (AP)—Poultry owners in the little French villages from which the Germans were driven in the big allied offensive that ended the war have been having a hard time of it to supply the exacting demands of the Germans. Two eggs a week from every hen was one German requisition. If the owner failed to deliver the eggs he was fined one mark. He was forbidden to sell or kill his chickens, and if one of them died he was fined 100 marks.

Their homes were stripped of everything that contained meat or rubber.

Inhabitants in all the villages taken by the allied troops were allowed only the most meager quantities of food by the German army officers. Hundreds of them declared to the Associated Press correspondent that if it were not for the help given by the United States through the Spanish-American Relief Committee they would have starved. There were times even when some of this food did not reach them, they said, because it was taken by the Germans and used in the army.

One resident in the town of Bohain said that 11,000 pounds of food sent to the Spanish-American Relief Committee from the United States and intended for the population, was taken by the Germans before they left the place.

STUDENT OFFICERS LEAVE FOR HOMES

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 28. (AP)—Five hundred students at the infantry central officers' training school at Camp Pike were discharged last night and left for their homes on a special train. The men were from northern states.

Saturday the November class of 859 students will be graduated and the newly commissioned lieutenants will be placed on the reserve list. The discharge of the remaining 4250 students at the school will continue at the rate of about 500 a day.

Discharge of enlisted men in the development battalions will be begun next week.

ENGLAND'S KING IS GUEST OF FRANCE AND GETS OVATION

Paris, Nov. 28. (AP)—King George accompanied by the Prince of Wales and Prince Albert arrived in Paris at 2:30 this afternoon. His majesty was received at the station by President Poincaré and Premier Clemenceau.

Enormous crowds thronged the streets in spite of the bad weather.

The crowd was so great at one point that it broke through the line of policemen. The Parisians frantically shouted: "Long Live the King!" "Long Live France!" "Long Live England!" and "Long Live the Republic!" King George, after a brief rest, went to the palace of the Elysee to visit President Poincaré and Madame Poincaré.

BANQUET IN AIR IS NOVELTY PROFFERED BY AERIAL MAIL MEN

Elizabeth, N. J., Nov. 28. (AP)—The first aerial banquet in history was held today on an airplane, 2800 feet above the new flying field of the United States air mail service here, marking the inauguration of the field as the terminus of the aerial mail service between New York and Philadelphia and Washington. A few minutes after the mail plane in charge of Max Miller left the field at 12:10 this afternoon a big Handley-Page machine rose under control of Capt. E. B. Walter of the Royal Flying Corps and during the flight 22 minutes above ground a real Thanksgiving dinner was served to nine persons.

U-BOAT AVENUE OFF HARWICH OVER ONE MILE LONG

London, Nov. 28. (AP)—A Reuter correspondent who visited "U-boat avenue" off Harwich where the surrendered submarines are lying states that the "avenue" is over a mile long. The submarines are towed to either side in batches of three and four.

The correspondent visited a submarine of the Deutschland type and saw a blood stained cat-o-nine-tails which a British sailor had found under the captain's bunk.

HYPOCRITICAL HUNS SOUGHT AID FROM ENGLISH PRISONERS

Hull, Wednesday, Nov. 27. (AP)—British civilian prisoners arriving here from Ruhleben, Germany, say that when they were leaving the prison camp there, a long written document was handed to them by the Germans, appealing to them to intercede with the British people in behalf of the people of Germany, who "have freed themselves from the chains of a barbarous system," and not to hold the Germans responsible for the deeds of their former autocratic rulers, "who are now utterly powerless."

WANT SEATS GIVEN TO RUSSIAN OUTFIT AT WORLD PEACE TABLE

New York, Nov. 28. (AP)—A plea that the party of Law and Order in Russia should have its place at the peace conference before Germany, has been sent to President Wilson by the American Defense Society it was announced here tonight.

"We learn with amazement that it is contemplated that the party of Law and Order in Russia may have no representation at the peace conference and that on the other hand Germany may be represented there," the message said. "There are many independent governments in Germany today as there are in Russia and all the various governments in Russia, except that conducted by the Bolsheviks, are upon the side of the Law and Order and anarchy cannot be put down in Germany if it cannot in Russia."

REPORT BOLSHIEVIKI TAKE CITY OF PSKOV

BOSPHORUS WAS ENTERED BY 50 ALLIED WARSHIPS

Constantinople, Wednesday, Nov.
13.—There were 50 British, French and Italian battleships, cruisers and destroyers in the allied squadron which anchored today in the Bos-phorus. The newspapers and the population acclaim the allied squadron as deliverers.

skirts of the city.

Food prices in Constantinople, according to the Turkish finance min-

HOLD LIBERTY BONDS SAYS RESERVE HEAD

Holders of liberty bonds have been warned not to sell them by W. P. G.
Harding, secretary of the Federal Reserve bank at Washington in the following message:

"The board strongly deprecates any movement on the part of liberty bond holders to dispose of their bonds at this time. The war has been brought to a glorious conclusion and treasury financing because of the war will probably be completed during the year nineteen-nineteen. Government securities will doubtless have a tendency to advance, and holders would be consulting their own interests by retaining their bonds as an investment unless absolutely obliged to sell. The strength of our banking situation depends largely upon the absorption of these bonds by the public and the Federal Reserve board ventures, therefore, to express the earnest hope that liberty bond holders will make any reasonable sacrifice necessary to enable them to hold their bonds until such time as the financing operations of the treasury have been completed and the market is ready to absorb the bonds at par or better."

MASSACRE OF JEWS AT LEMBERG CHARGE OF GERMAN WRITER

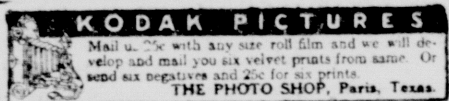

Berlin, Wednesday, Nov. 27. (AP)
—The charge that the Poles, after capturing Lemberg, the Galician capital, sacked the Jewish quarter, where the victims numbered several thousand, is made by the Lemberg correspondent of the Berlin Tageblatt, who says he left the Galician city November 24. He telegraphs his newspaper from Breslau as follows:

"Since Friday Lemberg, which has been the scene of desperate street fighting, is again in the hands of the Poles after having been stubbornly defended by the Ukrainians. The casualties among the soldiers and civilians are estimated as in excess of one thousand. A large section of the inner city was completely destroyed. The postoffice is a heap of smoldering ruins.

"Immediately upon entering the city the Poles proceeded to sack and burn the Ghetto district, whose victims numbered several thousand. The streets were filled with the charred bodies of murdered Jews, many of whom in the frenzy of despair, had leaped from the burning buildings, which were surrounded by Polish troops. The Polish authorities were indifferent and declined to take measures to halt the slaughter.
Polish legions roped off the streets leading to the Ghetto and methodically proceeded to pillage, rapine and burning.

"The Polish authorities are attempting to blame uniformed bandits for the pogroms, although it is commonly known that the terrorists are not only amply supplied with arms and munitions, but that they threatened the Jews in the event Lemberg was captured."

AUSTRIA WILL BRING TO TRIAL AUTHORS OF WAR

Former Emperor Charles, the Austrian grand dukes, and a number of generals are also to be tried, according to these advices.

London, Nov. 28. —British Wireless Service—In connection with reports that the resignations of Dr. Solf, the German foreign secretary, and Matthias Erzberger, another member of the cabinet, are expected after the severe attacks made upon them at the federal congress in Berlin, it is stated in a Copenhagen message that documents are to be published containing many compromising facts regarding the activities of Herr Erzberger during the earlier years of the war.

BILLY SUNDAY LIKES NOISE AND COLLEGE LADS HELP HIM OUT

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 28.—Billy Sunday likes noise, lots of it, and he had his fill at the coliseum last night—enough to warm the cockles of his heart.

"Hip, Hip, Hurrah!" It was a service of his liking. Students of the local colleges and high schools vied with each other in the "Rah Rahs." It was such a medley of enthusiasm that the evangelist continually smothered his content.

"That's the stuff! Give us some more," he urged his right hand man Bob Matthews, who was directing the yells.

"They say that Old Sunday he ain't got no style," sang out the senior high school delegation and the evangelist laughed aloud in his pleasure.

Billy hates indifference. In fact, he preached for an hour at the First Methodist church to "the long-faced, weasel, cross-eyed stiff-necked frozen-hearted partners of the church" just to let them know "what ranted peanuts they were in a world of big potatoes."

Billy's gymnastics upon the stage were enough to excite the envy of the college athletes. At times he was on his knees and then he would leap to his feet, rear away back and shout his imprecations upon the devil with his face toward high heaven. "Have blood in your veins, not pink tea!" Billy shouted to the youngsters in his sermon on "Forces That Win."

A startling epigram was that the newspapers of today are a better college than Abraham Lincoln had.

FRANCE TO SPEND FUTURE EFFORT IN GREAT UNDERTAKINGS

Paris, Sunday, Nov. 24. (AP)—Julius Cels, who was recently appointed under secretary of public works and transport, says in an interview with L'Information that special attention is being given by his department to the work of reaching an understanding with the American government relative to the immense amount of work done in France by the American army and navy.

M. Cels says that extensive plans are being formed for economic offensives by which French activities after the war will be commensurate with those exerted by the nation during the struggle.

"Studies are being made of a plan for a great international railway route from Bordeaux to Odessa," he says. "There is also a committee studying the project of constructing a tunnel under the English channel and another through the Vosges mountains west of Alsace."

The fourth and last quarterly meeting of the colored Methodist church on North Jefferson street will be held next Sunday by Dr. R. H. King, D. D., presiding elder of the Texarkana district of that church. He will preach at both hours, 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. Subject for the morning "The Prince of Peace Between the Trenches." 7:30 "The Day of Universal Democracy in Church and State." The members and friends are cordially invited to come out and hear this able divine and help the cause. Rev. McDade, pastor, Dr. R. H. King, presiding elder.

GERMANS DO NOT WANT TO GIVE UP RHINE SECTION

Zurich, Nov. 28. (AP)—Dr. W. S. Solf, German foreign minister, has addressed the following note to the allied powers:

"According to an additional note sent to the armistice convention by the allies, Belgium, France, Luxembourg and Alsace-Lorraine must be evacuated within a period of fifteen days. This retirement must be made in three stages each being marked on the map. The third stage has already been reached and encroaches upon the Rhine country to the west of Prum, between Merzig and Sarreguemines and comprises Sarrelouis and Sarrebruck. It seems possible that this encroachment may have been made with a view to attempting the annexation of these territories to Alsace-Lorraine. The protest of the members of the German commission has not been considered. The German government makes most solemn protest against all attempts intended to deprive Germany of these territories."

The German armistice commission has again presented arguments supporting a delay in the evacuation of territories west of the Rhine, claiming that the economic situation there supports Germany's view.

EX-KAISER CAN BE EXTRADITED VIEW OF NOTED LAWYER

Paris, Nov. 28. (AP)—William, Hohenzollern can be extradited in the opinion of Professor Barthelemy of the Paris law faculty, who explains that his guiding principle is that when there is an apparent conlict between law and common sense, the solution is always found by following the latter.

The theory that a political crime is any crime inspired by purely political motives, the professor declares, has long been abandoned. He notes that Belgium in 1856 classed Regicides among common law criminals. Crimes such as the assassinations of President Carnot of France and King Humbert of Italy were inspired by political motives, he points out and yet the authors of them were executed.

The atrocities ordered by former Emperor William, the professor continues, are condemned even in a state of war by international law and constitute common law crimes. To maintain that they are not, because the object for which they were committed was political, is, he argues, an absurdity.

AUSTRIA PLEADING FOR SUPPLIES AND MONEY FROM ALLIES

Vienna, Sunday, Nov. 24. (P)—“Provided the allies extend immediate help, the Austrian republic will be able to arise from the position it is in at present,” said Dr. Joseph Redlich, former minister of finance, to the correspondent today.

“We hope there is no revengeful desire on the part of the allies to see us remain in poverty,” he continued. “Our enemies should be generous and remember at least that Austria did what she considered her duty to her ally and tried repeatedly to give up the war. If we are helped, we will be able to help ourselves. Our people are farmers and men of the industrial classes, all willing to work and not inclined to Bolshevism. Our financial position looks like bankruptcy, on paper, but we will be able to pay our war debts.”

“Our gold reserves are small—perhaps half a million crowns—but that is of no great importance in my opinion. What I urge is that we be helped back to a productive basis. If we can get food we will be able to keep order. If we can get coal we will begin working. If we can get cotton, metals and raw materials production will go on. We will also be quiet politically, which is desired by America and the allies. Whether we are tied up to the German federation or not is an unsettled question, even among ourselves. It is my opinion that we must form a federation with the broken up parts of the former empire for commercial purposes.”

Ludwig Von Neupath, director of the Austrian credit bank, said today while discussing the situation:

“The Austrian republic must first be given a loan to be used for the purpose of sending food and coal into the country to prevent famine and disorder. Then it must obtain another loan of $50,000,000 to buy a six months' stock of cotton, wool and copper.”

“Diplomatic pressure should be brought to bear against the Czechs who are attempting to prevent the arrival of coal and metals from Galicia and other points. The peace conference also should apportion the debts of the former Austrian empire equitably among the Czechs, Hungarians, Austrians and Jugo-Slavs. This debt now totals 56,000,000,000 kronen $2,000,000,000 of which is in paper money which is circulating in all parts of the country. If the Austrian republic is made to shoulder this war debt she is bound to be bankrupt. Before the war normal expenses for the army totalled 2,000,000,000 kronen. If there is no army or navy in the future this sum will be sufficient to pay the interest on the country's debt.”

CONSERVATION WEEK FOR WORLD RELIEF

The Food Administration has asked that the week beginning December 1st shall be “Conservation Week for World Relief.” Observance of this week are planned in every field of activity touched by the Food Administration. Churches, colleges, schools, women's organizations of various kinds—all will celebrate the week by special exercises, and in all homes it is expected that efforts will be made not only to actually save food in every possible direction, but to realize the solemn obligation that still rests upon the American people and to plan a systematic reduction in the family fare so that we may share our food with those who fought for us and for whom we have fought.

All public eating places have been requested to co-operate, but to do so in their own way along the splendid lines of their wartime patriotism and initiative. The placard:

“This is Conservation Week for World Relief.”

We are trying to save food here.

Are you trying to save food in your home?”

has been sent by Administrator Peden to all Texas public eating places with the request that it be displayed wherever food is served to the public.

BRYAN HIGH BOYS WEAR MIDDIES AND GIRLS SILK SHIRTS

Dallas, Nov. 28.—The Sierra range can be moved with a wheelbarrow and a new channel for Niagara dug with a salad fork but the exuberance of youth simply cannot be stemmed nor the mischief of school days checked.

Wednesday morning the senior class of the Bryan high school came to studies in switched clothing. The twenty-four girls had on stiff collars, boys' shirts and ties that fairly screamed. The boys wore middie blouses, exposing their swan-like necks and shrouding their mobile figures. Several of the boys limped along in too tight pumps and said uncomplimentary things about those lance-like whalebone staves which kept prodding them as they walked. The girls were giggling over what funny things men wear—sharp-corner collars to hide their Adam's apple, and shirts that hid the dimples on ones arms.

The school authorities took one look at the assemblage, cleared its collective throat and declared open warfare. The girls were hustled into one room while the boys were shunted into another. Doors were barred and many things about indiscreet conduct and grave impropriety were said. The answer was two dozen rah rahs and twenty-four giggles.

A sentry was posted to guard the insurgent students. Something was said about taking the commissions from cadets. Serious consequences were threatened. Meantime the sentry must have gone to sleep, because in some inexplicable way notes were exchanged between the boys' room and the prison of the girls, felicitating each other upon the misadventures of senior day.

The girls were released at noon and the boys were forced to remain until 4 o'clock.

RED CROSS PLANS TO CARE FOR WOUNDED AMERICAN PRISONERS

Washington, Nov. 28.—Sick and wounded American soldiers who were held prisoner by the Germans and who are not strong enough to travel will be cared for by the American Red Cross through Alfred Ney, a Swiss neutral delegate with large German experience and acquaintance. A cablegram received from Paris said it is planned to place all these Americans in a central hospital and, if possible, provide American medical attendance.

At Stilement hospital, Metz, where wounded prisoners have been arriving in groups of 50, the Red Cross provided a truckload of medical supplies, food and cigarettes. Four thousand blankets were distributed to the prisoners concentrated at Nancy and a large canteen was established. Five tons of food were sent to Stenay for American and French prisoners passing through the lines at that point.

One dose will convince or money refunded.—Sold by Palace Drug Store and druggists everywhere.

REVEALING SCANDAL IN AUSTRIA; FUNDS TAKEN BY NOBILITY

Berlin, Wednesday, Nov. 27. (AP)—The German-Austrian national council is negotiating with the Hungarian and Czech governments for the purpose of securing their co-operation in the publication of diplomatic pre-war documents and in an investigation into the responsibility for and conduct of the war, the Vienna correspondent of the Vossische Zeitung reports.

Recent revelations have been made he says, to the effect that former Emperor Charles had secretly drawn 1,500,000 crowns on the army account, while charges involving Archduke Frederick and other high officers in connection with army contracts also are to be looked into.

The diplomatic investigation will be directed chiefly against Count Berchtold who was Austro-Hungarian foreign minister when the war broke out, and Count Czernin, later the occupant of that portfolio, the latter being accused of summarily rejecting alleged American peace proposals in the fall of 1917 and at the beginning of the present year.

The statement made in the Bavarian disclosures to the effect that the late Count Tisza, then Hungarian premier, was opposed to the hostile tone of the Austro-Hungarian ultimatum to Serbia, is said to conform with the facts. Count Stuerghk, the Austrian premier, on the other hand is represented as having proceeded in the manner of a ruthless dictator.

NO NATURALIZATION PAPERS FOR SOLDIERS

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 28. (AP)—No more naturalization papers will be issued to soldiers. They will be naturalized, but their citizenship papers will be held up until they are mustered out, then their papers will come from Washington.

About 150 soldiers and aviators have qualified for their first papers here within the last three days.

The cause for holding up the papers is that Germans took the first citizenship papers off dead Canadians and then tried to use them to prove they were Americans.

Except for amusement resorts being open there was an air of Sunday round the business part of town yesterday afternoon and most of the people seen on the streets wore an appearance of having had a good dinner.

Lieutenant Thomas Broad came to Paris Wednesday night on a furlough to visit his people.

WOMEN EMPLOYES OF RAILROADS WILL BE RETAINED AFTER WAR

Washington, Nov. 28. (AP)—Women railroad employees—about 100,000 in number, who were added to the payrolls on account of the war, mainly as clerks and stenographers, probably will be retained permanently, it was said today at headquarters of the railroad administration. Specific action in this regard will be left to individual railroads, but administration officials who have made a survey of the employment situation, believe the demand for labor during the readjustment period will be so great that it will be not only desirable but necessary to retain the women employees.

U. S. HIEROGLYPHICS OLDEST IN WORLD?

Bishop Cal., Nov. 28.—Amateur students of ancient writings in this section are endeavoring to interest scientists of the East in the inscriptions which abound on the rocks of Round Valley, not far from this city, and which are believed to be as old, if not older, than the hieroglyphics of earliest Egypt, to which they bear a strange resemblance.

It is believed by many that the strange markings constituted the names by which ancient tribes marked the source of water supply for the benefit of those of their number who lived roving lives.

These hieroglyphics have never been deciphered, although they are matters of record in the leading muscle of the country, it is said. The Indian tribes now living in this vicinity declare they are the work of the Indians of North America and that they antedate all aboriginal lore.

Some who have examined the strange markings in the flinty bowlders say the hieroglyphics closely resemble those of earliest Egypt and may replace the latter as the first written language of humanity.

They are found always in the vicinity of water supplies, the same markings discovered near Bishop appearing also on the rocks extending through the Canadian border, down through Washington, Oregon and California to the Mexican line and beyond. This fact, it is argued, indicates that prehistoric tribes marked a highway for their migrating members or for their armies, giving specific directions as to the best matters of record in the leading water supplies along the way.

SHULER EXTENDS INVITE TO FARMER FRIENDS

Figuring that there are a thousand farmers living adjacent to the "good roads" (so-called) that lead out of Paris and that 10 per cent of them would like to hear a sermon on "To Hell With the Kaiser," I am asking that the ushers give my farmer friends extra fine seats next Sunday night when I shall deliver a sermon in the High School auditorium on "Is To Hell With the Kaiser American Sentiment?" Will the Kaiser go to hell when he is hanged? How would the Kaiser feel in Heaven? Should France forgive Germany? Must Americans hate the Huns? Under what conditions would Christ forgive the war lords of Prussia? These are a few of the questions that will be answered Sunday night.

"Somewhere in France" With Empey

"Corporal Hawkins was next on the list for the job, but, blame me, he sure had the wind up, and was shaking and trembling like a dish of jelly.

"A new lieutenant, Newall by name, had just come out from Blighty, and a pretty fine officer, too. Now, don't you chaps think because this chap was killed that I say he was a good officer, because, dead or alive, you would have to go a bloomin' long way to get another man like Newall. But this young lieutenant was all eagerness to get out in front. You see, it was his first time over the top. He noticed that Hawkins was shaky, and so did French. French went up to the officer and said:

"Sir, Corporal Hawkins has been feeling queer for the last couple of days, and I would deem it a favor if I could go in his place."

"Now, don't think that Hawkins was a coward, because he was not, for the best of us are liable to get the 'shakes' at times. You know, Hawkins was killed at La Basse a couple of months ago—killed while going over the top.

"There were seven in this patrol—Lieutenant Newall, Corporal French, myself and four more from B company.

"About sixty yards from Fritz's trench an old ditch—must have been the bed of a creek, but at that time was dry—ran parallel with the German barbed wire. Lining the edge of this ditch was a scrubby sort of hedge which made a fine hiding place for a patrol. Why Fritz had not sent out a working party and done away with this screen was a mystery to us.

"French leading, followed by Lieutenant Newall, myself third, and the rest trailing behind, we crawled through a sap under our barbed wire leading out to a listening post in No Man's land. We each had three bombs. Newall carried a revolver—one of those Yankee Colts—and his cane. Blimey, I believe that officer slept with that cane. He never went without it. The rest of us were armed with bombs and rifles, bayonets fixed. We had previously blackened our bayonets so they would not shine in the glare of a star shell.

"Reaching the listening post French told us to wait about five minutes until he returned from a little scouting trip of his own. When he left, we, with every nerve tense, listened for his coming back. We could almost hear each other's hearts pumping, but not a sound around the listening post. Suddenly a voice, about six feet on my right whispered, 'All right the way is clear; follow me and carry on.'

"My blood froze in my veins. It was uncanny the way French approached us without being heard.

"Then, with backs bending low, out of the listening post we went, in the direction of the ditch in front of the German barbed wire. We reached the scrubby hedge and lay down, about six feet apart, to listen. French and the officer were on the right of our line.

About twenty minutes had elapsed when suddenly, directly in front of the German wire we could see dark, shadowy forms rise from the ground and move along the wire. Silhouetted against the skyline these forms looked like huge giants, and took on horrible shapes. My heart almost stopped beating. I counted sixty-two in all, as the last form faded into the blackness on my left.

"A whisper came to my ears: 'Don't move or make a sound, a strong German raiding party is going across.' It was French's voice. I did not hear him approach me, nor leave. Yank, he must have got his training with the Indians on your great plains of America!

"I could hear a slight scraping noise on my right and left. Pretty soon the whole reconnoitering patrol was lying in a circle, heads in. French had, in his noiseless way, given orders for them to close in on me, and await instructions.

"Lieutenant Newall's voice, in a very low whisper, came to us:

"Boys, the men in our trenches have received orders not to fire on account of our reconnoitering patrol being out in front. A strong German raiding party has just crept over our left, and is making for our trench. It's up to us to send word back. We can't all go, because we might make too much noise and warn the German party, so it's up to one of us to carry the news back to the trench that the raiding party is on its way. With this information it will be quite easy for our boys to wipe them out. But it's up to the rest of us to stick out here, and if we go west we have done our duty in a noble cause. Corporal French, you had better take the news back, because you are too valuable a man to sacrifice."

"French, under his breath, answered:

"Sir, I've been out since Mons, and this is the first time that I've ever been insulted by an officer. If this patrol is going to click it, I'm going to click it too. If we come out of this you can try me for disobedience of orders, but here I stick, and I'll be damned if I go in, officer or no officer."

Don't Be Misled About Gasoline!

Gravity does not indicate the quality of gasoline. Specific gravity is important, of course, but what really counts, what really determines the miles per gallon, is Volatility and End Point.

Volatility

means the point at which a liquid vaporizes. You can readily see that the gasoline which vaporizes at the lowest temperature will be the quickest to explode. Therefore a low vaporizing point means quickness and ease in starting your car.

End Point

is the temperature at which a quantity of liquid stops vaporizing. Therefore the lower the End Point, the longer and more uniform the explosion—the smoother your car will run and the more miles per gallon of gasoline you will get.

Home Gasoline

"the gasoline with the punch"

Is low in Volatility and End Point. It gives the most miles per gallon for automobiles and the greatest power per gallon for stationary engines.

HIGHER THOUGHT

FIGURES IN SUIT TO

DIVORCE EDITOR

New York, Nov. 28.—Higher thought and divination figured here in the divorce suit of Mrs. Katherine Sloan Pratt against Albert Houghton Pratt. The defendant was formerly an editor employed by the Houghton-Mifflin Co., and stockholder in the corporation.

Mme. P. Mildred Parma, the alleged correspondent, is a writer on occult topics. The indiscretions Mrs.
Pratt charges against her husband were committed, it is alleged, in Mme. Parma's bungalow at Atlantic Highlands, which is known as
"The White House."

Mrs. Pratt testified that interest in occultism had been a factor in bringing about acquaintance between Mme. Parma and the defendant. It was in 1915, she said, that she met Mme. Parma and began efforts to get into "the charmed circle" of those whose lives were attuned to higher thought and divination. She consulted Mme. Parma and with her 13-year-old daughter, she would spend an hour daily gazing into a crystal that she might promote abstract thought.

Finally, in a ouija board communication, she received further advice and then was told by Mme. Parma to go to California. After she reached the Pacific coast another adviser told her Mme. Parma's vibrations should be "closely observed" and added that ouija board communications were degrading. Then she began investigating vibrations and other things. The suit resulted.

Hooray for Banana Peel "Gets-It"

Only Real Way to Get Rid of Corns.

Which do you prefer—a corn that pulls or a corn that peels? Buttery or blessedness? Only "Gets-It" can get rid of your corn the peel-off way, the blessed way. You don't need a pull.

"Corns Never Trouble Me, I Use 'Gets-It'!"
Why hump yourself up on the floor and with your jaws set and eyes popping from pain, jerk and squeeze and cut your corns? Why irritate your toes with some salve or wrap your toes into a big painful bundle with some sticky tape or plaster? Life is too short.
Use "Gets-It"—it takes a few seconds to apply and there's no fussing. Corns peel off. Wear new shoes if you want.
Peel off the corn with your fingers—the whole thing, root and all, clear and clean, and it's gone! Only "Gets-It" can do this. Take no chances.
"Gets-It" the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at any drug store.

The little Hyomei inhaler is made of hard rubber and can easily be car-
